Jos Snoep has served as President and CEO of Bible League International since 2016, when the organization’s Board of Directors appointed him to the position. His inspiring leadership provides clear direction for this global ministry. His energy and focus clearly reflect his commitment to engaging people in God’s Word to transform lives throughout the world.

Born, raised, and educated in the Netherlands, Jos joined Bible League as a fundraiser in his homeland in 2005. His first ministry experience in the field was in the Philippines, where he saw people being engaged in God’s Word through Project Philip small group Bible studies. He also witnessed Project Philip trainings in which believers eagerly learned how to effectively share God’s Word to help people find new life in Jesus Christ. “During that visit, I saw for myself that this ministry provided God’s Word in a way that was understandable and led people to salvation in Jesus,” he says.

Blessed with a God-given gift to build relationships, Jos next served as manager of the Netherlands office and staff, providing innovative and inspiring leadership that help expand the reach and effectiveness of the ministry.

After serving as National Director of the Europe region, Jos began serving as Executive Director of the EMEA (Europe/Middle East/Africa) Division in January 2012. In that role, he demonstrated his characteristic work ethic, natural leadership, business acumen, and passion for ministry. Soon, he became Executive Vice President of Operations. Today, as President and CEO, Jos and his leadership team are unified in placing the integrity of the ministry at the forefront of all their decisions and actions.

With strategic plans for ministry growth, he and his team approach each day with prayerful hearts and a Godly vision. “We want to engage more people in God’s Word so that more will find new life in Jesus Christ,” he explains. “I count every opportunity I have to interact with our donor partners as one of my greatest joys. It is a blessing to know that they, like us, want people to not just have a Bible but to read and study it so that they can understand God’s Word—and believe!”

Jos, his wife, and four children now reside in northwest Indiana.
