FIND-THE-PLACE

Facts about Colombia

- Want to go on a bike ride? Bogotá, Colombia's capital, offers 340 miles of smooth cycling paths. About 84,000 people use them each day.
- This country is a place of diversity! Across the nation, there are snow-covered volcanoes, the Andes Mountains, tropical beaches, rainforests, vast grasslands, and deserts.
- Colombia shares a border with Panama, but no roads connect the two countries.
- If you like sparkly gems and coffee, Colombia has plenty of both! It is the world's leading source of emeralds and the third largest exporter of coffee.

FIND-THE-LESSONS

Color the picture below and read about how much Jesus loves you and wants you to follow Him.

In Matthew 4:19, Jesus calls Simon Peter and his brother to “Come, follow me...” Immediately, they leave everything to follow Jesus and tell people about His love for us.

In this week’s story sheet about Valentina from Colombia, she says she loves going to church with her aunt and sister because they “learn a lot about the love of God there.” She studies the Bible at church with her friends where their teacher taught them that Jesus loves us all just as we are.

Do you follow Jesus too? Can you think of ways you can tell—and show—others how much Jesus loves them?

FIND-THE-WAY
